Hi Maurizio, I am totally renovating my bathroom and would like to use tumbled marble throughout floors, shower stall and walls. We also are planning on having a steam shower. People have told me it will require a lot of maintenance. If properly installed is this a good choice for the bathroom? I love the look and really want to have it in my new bathroom but I am conflicted about different stories I am hearing. Thank you so much!

Dear Kathy:

“People have told me it will require a lot of maintenance”

Did they tell you why, or did they just open their big mouth without any sensible explanation just to show off how “knowledgeable” they are?

Tumble-finished marble (or any other stone for that matter) is a rugged finish that makes the stone as close to maintenance-free as possible.

Ignore those “gurus” and just go for it!

All you will need is to learn a few basic and simple maintenance guidelines.

By logging into the Helpful Hints section of our website at: http://www.mbstone.com/HH\_promo/helpful\_hints.htm, you will be able to get the short version of our maintenance guidelines at no charge. The full version of it “a 7-page document considered by many as an industry benchmark” is available in pay-per-download format in our Educational Literature section at: <http://www.mbstone.com/literature/literature.htm>.

And remember, every single penny of the cost of the literature will be used to support this site and its cause: your cause.

While you are in the “Helpful Hints” section, do spend some time reading all of the interesting FREE articles you'll find in there!

Finally, keep in mind that we need your support to help us helping you!

Will you please read and e-sign our Statement of Purpose at: <http://www.marblecleaning.org/purpose.htm>?

By spreading the word about this valuable site among your friend & family and the stone trades' people you've been dealing with, you will be rendering everybody a valuable service!

Thank you

Ciao and good luck,
