How many square feet will a gallon of sealer cover? I am doing a full marble bath (Ice beige and emperador dark) and granite tile (peacock jade) kitchen counter top? Thank you, J Petrie

Dear J Petrie:

Assuming that Peacock Jade is another name for Peacock Green, if the entire world was veneered with the stones that you have, 1 GL of impregnator will cover the entire planet and then the moon, too! J

Translation #1: there are only two chances to seal those stones: no way and no how.

Translation #2: those stones are too dense to absorb a darn thing, including the impregnator (what you call sealer).

Translation #3: forget about the sealing thing and learn some basic intelligence about the proper installation and routine maintenance of your stones instead, which, as it should be intuitive, is vastly more important than the sealing â€œ if and when possible and/or advisable.
