Q. I was trying to access your literature data base but my computer said the site could not be found. Am interested in literature on proper installation of Travertine in showers. My brother recently had one installed....it leaks (one wall low to floorlll leaks into basement). Installer moved to Florida. Now he wants me to fix it. Thanks for your reply and very sorry to hear about Mr. Bartoli. JOHN HADSALL
Hi John-Thanks for the kind words. Post your question on the john bridge forum and you will get some answers.

As far as our literature section, it is working but there isnt anything on installations.
