We are looking to redo our floors (about 1000sf, kitchen, dining room, family room, hallways). We currently have ceramic tile. We have four dogs and I cannot keep up with the dirty grout lines. Could we use a honed marble or would that be a mistake?

Dear Lynn:

I've got these 2 equations for you:

1. 4 dogs + 1 Marble Floor (honed) = 1 Disaster flooring with dirty grout.
1. 4 dogs + 1 Marble floor (tumbled) = 1 Excellent flooring but still with dirty grout!

Any other questions?... J
